UCSC Committee on Planning and Budget

Professional School Update

Spring Senate Meeting
March 9, 2007
Why professional schools now?
Why professional schools now?

• Increase graduate growth targeted to different students than traditional MA and Ph.D.

• Enhance areas of campus strength

• Meet State needs for professionals in a variety of fields, including community college teachers

• Develop community ties around the region (including Monterey Bay area institutions and Silicon Valley)
Process for new proposals
• Guidelines for pre-proposals

• EVC available support
What’s been done to define and compare professional school options?
• Call for proposals last year

• Seed money from the Vice Provost of Academic Affairs

• Office of the President (OP) money for development of the UCSC-Silicon Valley connection
What options have emerged?

What is their status?
• Architecture and Design Education
Environmental Science and Policy
Library and Information Technology
Nursing
Public Health

• Climate Change

• Coastal and Marine Policy
Public Media
Public Policy

• School of Management

suggested by faculty group and deans pre-professional school program pre-proposals funded through Senate process most fully funded and developed
School of Management update
• Pre-proposal phase
• Seed money / funding
• Consultant report
• Resource plan
• Campus sponsors
What is the formal approval process on and off-campus?