

Academic Senate Forum on Professional Schools at UCSC

October 10, 2007

3:00 – 5:00

Stevenson Event Center NEW LOCATION

Agenda	Target Time
1. Welcome (Senate Chair Quentin Williams)	3:00
2. How are Professional Schools established at University of California? (CPB Chair Susan Gillman)	3:05
3. Criteria for evaluating proposals (GC Chair Tyrus Miller)	3:15
4. Status of some possible proposals (VPAA Alison Galloway)	3:40
-Education Presenter: Rod Ogawa, Professor and Chair of Department of Education
-Environmental Sciences Presenter: Daniel Press, Professor and Chair of Environmental Studies
-Management Presenter: Nirvikar Singh, Professor of Economics and Special Advisor to the Chancellor for the School of Management
-Public Health Presenter: Marc Mangel, Professor and Chair of Applied Math and Statistics
-Public Policy Presenter: Rob Fairlie, Professor of Economics
5. Q&A on Proposals (Williams)	4:10
6. What happens next? (Galloway then Williams)	4:50

13. SCHOOL ESTABLISHMENT UCSC APPROVAL PROCESS

