

Committee on Educational Policy
Policy on Classroom Utilization

In view of the severe congestion in classroom utilization for rooms with a certain range of seats in certain academic terms, CEP will not approve any new academic program that requires additional general assignment classrooms in an academic term and a size category for which the utilization is already at or above 90%.

Approved by the Committee on Educational Policy on January 16, 2020.